PRE-HEALTH AMBASSADORS

MEET YOUR PRE-HEALTH AMBASSADORS

ARSHA MOORTHY

4TH YEAR, PRE-MEDICINE TRACK

Hello! I am a senior from Flowery Branch, GA earning dual degrees in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (BM&B) and Spanish, and recently got admitted to Mercer University School of Medicine (in 2028)! I conduct biophysics research, am President of A&D, and organize the "Interfaith Community" project as a Mercer Service Scholar, which seeks to gain insight into chaplainship care in middle Georgia. I am also an avid Harry Potter fanatic, and in my spare time I enjoy writing poetry and watching true crime videos. Having gone through the med school application process, I know how challenging and confusing it can be, and I am excited to help students navigate through the process and reach their career goals!

MADISON ANDREWS

2ND YEAR, PRE-NURSING TRACK

My name is Madison Andrews, I am a sophomore majoring in Public Health on the Pre-Nursing Track! I aspire to be a nurse with a focus in Ophthalmology and travel around the world helping and informing women of all demographics! I am from Marietta, Georgia. My hobbies and interests include cooking, traveling, volunteering, listening to music and outdoor activities! I am a Peer Advisor and a tour guide for our Admissions team, and am in many other clubs and organizations! I have several experiences as a member and leader within my community, so I am super excited to work with and represent the Pre-Nursing students! I am a social butterfly with an open mind and eager to help others in the best way I can!

KERIDAH BOUADOU

3RD YEAR, PRE-MED TRACK

I am a Global Health Studies major and an heavily involved on campus as a Co-President of the Minority Association of Pre-Medical Students, a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., a study hall monitor in the Mercer Athletics Dept., a Service Scholar, and now as a Pre-Health Ambassador. Throughout my educational career, the ability to prioritize my goals and manage time have been key to my success. However, none of this would be possible without the positive influences and advisors that have guided my path. I am so excited to be working with my fellow future health professionals as I navigate our way through Undergrad. In my time as a pre-health ambassador, I plan to cultivate a safe space in which questions and concerns can be addressed. Any topics from academics to extracurriculars to self-care are welcome. Don't hesitate to stop by my office hour!

CAITLYN PAGE

3RD YEAR, PRE-PA TRACK

Hi! My name is Caitlyn Page and I am a junior here at Mercer! I am a biology major on the Pre-PA track and am currently working at Vineville Internal Medicine. Medicine is something that has always interested me, and I am so excited to work in the field professionally. I am also in Phi Mu here at Mercer and serve on our executive board. I love the Mercer community and am so excited to be able to help others who are on the same path as me!

MANASI JAIN

3RD YEAR, PRE-PA TRACK

Hello! My name is Manasi Jain, and I am a junior. My major is Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, with minors in Psychology and Graphic Design. I am on the pre-dental track, and I am excited to be of help to anyone who is also on this track and interested in learning about what steps they would like to take on their pre-dental path. Feel free to stop by or contact me with any questions, and I am happy to help!

REEMA CHANDE

3RD YEAR, PRE-MEDICINE TRACK

Hi! My name is Reema Chandé. I'm majoring in Psychology and minoring in Latin. What drew me towards a career in healthcare is my interest in the intersection of maternal health and mental health—two areas where medicine and the humanities are inseparable. In my time at Mercer, I've been lucky to find great mentors through organizations like SNMA-MAPS and Mindful Mercer; so I know how valuable mentoring relationships can be during the rewards and challenges of pursuing a health profession. As a pre-health ambassador, I hope I can be that mentor for you, whether that's sharing advice on course selection, exploring research, or just unpacking any anxieties or stress you face along the way. Drop by Langdale Hall or e-mail me with any questions or just to chat!

CAITLANN ARANT

3RD YEAR, PRE-MED TRACK

My name is Caitlann Arant. I am majoring in Women's and Gender Studies with minors in Chemistry and Art. I would ultimately love to work in Pediatrics. I am involved in a variety of clubs and organizations on and off campus. I volunteer in the pediatric dept of Atrium Health Navicent, in the Food As Medicine Market, and Read2Succeed. A few things I am involved in on campus are Alpha Epsilon Delta, Phi Eta Sigma and I am an Honor Council Justice.
